

Individual Nursery Award 2008

SPONSORED BY:

Veale Wasbrough Lawyers

Samantha Walsh

Little Lambs Day Nursery

Kinmel Bay, Conwy, North Wales

The nursery has been completely revamped and updated to provide a better environment for children, parents and staff after purchase last year.

Nick Hogg

Lamley Day Nursery

Lambley, Nottinghamshire

Nick and partner Dawn Edwards saved this small nursery from closure last September. Attendance has increased from six to 20 children daily.

Roisin Moriarty

Oakfield Nursery School

Altrincham, Cheshire

Celebrating its 40th anniversary this nursery's success lies in its ability to embrace new learning and ideas in childcare. Ofsted rated it 'outstanding'.

Susan Bingham and Cornelia Harrison

Hopes and Dreams Montessori

Islington, London

It provides high quality childcare in a beautifully equipped building, with a strong focus on child development by dedicated and loving staff.

Sue Tickner and Vince Lethridge

Abbey Wood Grange

Kenley, Surrey

This nursery aims to provide an exciting curriculum to meticulously meet every child's personal needs. Partnership with parents is outstanding.

Nursery Learning Environment Award 2008

SPONSORED BY:

Step by Step

Karen Baker and Christelle Laurent

Teddies Nurseries

West Hampstead, London

They are particularly proud of their learning centre, which include images of different cultural and ethnic backgrounds and six defined areas.

Liz Newby and Paula Chapman

Stables Daycare

Tonbridge, Kent

Playrooms are brightly decorated with learning areas defined. Tactile play is valued and tots often enjoy going into a paddling pool of baked beans!

Brenda Curry and Kathleen Shields

Selby Cottage Childcare

Chester Le Street, Durham

There is a wildlife garden and children care for their pet rabbit 'Parsley', fish and giant land snails. The children are also rearing their own chickens.

Aelene French and Patricia French

Dimson Day Nursery

Gunnislake, Cornwall

Dimson has bright rooms decorated with colourful displays and a large outdoor area where children really discover nature including sheep shearing.

Claire Burgess

Kids Allowed

Knutsford, Cheshire

The learning environments are diverse and ensure that all areas of the EYFS are available at all times. Children chose from babies what they want to do.

RESERVE YOUR PLACE TODAY!

To book tickets contact Shital Patel:
shital@hawkerpublications.com Tel: 0207 720 2108 ex 202